BRITAIN POLICY OF AID TO IRAQ UNAFFECTED BY WITHDRAWAL FROM PACT

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON (AP)—Britain's policy of supplying arms to Iraq will remain unaffected by the decision of the Iraqi government to withdraw from the anti-Communist Baghdad Pact, a Foreign Office spokesman said today.

Iraqi Premier Abdel Karim Kassem Tuesday announced the decision to pull out of the alliance. His move may have been intended to mollify both the pan-Arab followers of President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic and the Communist bloc.

Operation of Jukeboxes in Miami Probed

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate investigators look today into charges that mobsters used labor unions as pawns in maneuvering for monopoly control of Miami area jukebox operations.

Chief Counsel Robert F. Kennedy said the Labor-Management Committee hearing will center on Joseph (Joe Scootch) Indelicato and Charles Karpf, whom he described as Miami racketeers, and their relations with jukebox operator Joseph Mangione and others.

Among other things, Kennedy said, the hearing will show that racketeers sought variously to use the Upholsterers Union, the Textile Workers Union, the Electrical Workers and the Teamsters in battling for complete control of Miami's jukebox industry.

Kennedy said the committee has evidence that strong arm violence was used against those who refused to bow to underworld demands.

The hearing marks another chapter in the committee's investigation of charges of a coast-to-coast plot by gangsters and corrupt labor union officials to muscle in on lucrative jukebox and other coin machine operations.

The committee had a brief encounter Tuesday with two old underworld figures, Mickey Cohen and Fred Sica. Both ducked behind Fifth Amendment pleas when questioned about allegations of shake-downs in Los Angeles (Turn to Page Eighteen)

Senate Debating An Extension of Fed. Jobless Pay

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate today debates extension of the temporary federal jobless pay program, with indications it will adopt the three-month tapering-off bill already passed by the House.

The Senate Finance Committee Monday approved the House bill with only a minor amendment. It rejected a substitute proposed by 18 Democratic senators for a 15-month extension with liberalized provisions.

Sen. Pat McNamara (D-Mich), chief sponsor of the 15-month proposal, told a reporter it would be offered in today's floor debate. But there appeared to be small chance it would win out.

The House-passed bill, which was endorsed by the Eisenhower administration, would not permit any person who becomes jobless after April 1 to qualify for the temporary benefits.

But it would allow those who have qualified before April 1 to draw their checks up to June 30 this year. About 405,000 persons would benefit at a cost of 78 million dollars.

Drop in Food Prices Pushes Living Costs Down a Little

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lower food prices pushed the nation's living costs down one-tenth of one per cent in February.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics said its index declined to 123.7 per cent of the 1947-49 base. This is the highest February index point on record, however, 1 per cent above last year.

For January the index stood at 123.8, a fraction under the record of 123.9 set last July and equaled in November.

All consumer price items, except food, averaged higher in

The Foreign Office spokesman said Iraq has not asked staging base at Habbaniya, west for liquidation of Britain's air of Baghdad, where about 600 Royal Air Force personnel and several planes are stationed. But he said its position "and various other bilateral arrangements between ourselves and the Iraqis are under discussion."

As to arms for Iraq, Britain has been reported considering resuming shipments which were stopped when Kassem's revolt last July overthrew the Western monarchy and government.

Ever since last July, Iraq's withdrawal from the Baghdad Pact had been expected.

The alliance took its name from the Iraqi capital, where the pact was signed in 1955 by Iraq, Iran, Pakistan, Turkey and Britain. The other four governments and the United States already had written off Iraq as a military ally.

Kassem had boycotted all pact activities since his revolutionists overthrew the pro-Western monarchy last July, and the alliance's headquarters are now in Ankara, the Turkish capital.

The first reaction from the United Arab Republic was one of disdain. The semi-official Middle East News Agency, repeating the old charge that the pact sought to destroy Arab nationalism, said this also was the aim of "Kassem's policy as well as the penetration of Communist imperialism into Iraq."

Nasser has accused Kassem of joining the Communists in a campaign against the U. A. R. and Arab unity. Kassem, backed by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, has accused Nasser of fomenting the recent abortive army revolt in northern Iraq.

Diplomats said that Kassem, though publicly trying to ignore Nasser's attacks, may be feeling the pressure of the U. A. R. leader's pan-Arab movement. There was speculation that the Iraqi premier hoped to demonstrate to the Arab world that he was free of Western influence. (Turn to Page Eighteen)

90-Year-Old Man Held For Killing Sick Wife

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Although he was sympathetic to the request, Pennsylvania's constitution stopped the judge from freeing a 90-year-old man accused of killing his aged and sick wife.

The unusual request to free George Hope, at least until his trial starts, was made in Common Pleas Court Tuesday by Asst. Dist. Atty. Paul M. Chalfin and Albert S. Olinis, the old man's attorney.

But Judge Ethan A. Doty said the constitution allows bail in all but capital cases where the proof is evident or presumption of guilt is great.

The two attorneys had sought to have Hope released in the custody of his daughter, Lucy Dickie, 61, of Newburyport, Mass.

Hope remained in a hospital bed Tuesday while his 90-year-old wife, Ada, was buried.

February. Food prices dropped seven-tenths of a per cent, resuming a decline interrupted in January after five consecutive months.

Ewan Clague, Labor Department statistics commissioner, said the prospect for the next few months is that living costs will continue in a narrow range.

He said foods tend to go up in the late spring and summer, but this expected rise may be moderate this year and counterbalanced to some extent by expected declines in durable goods and clothing.

The fugitives were traveling in a stolen auto when they were spotted by Deputy Fritz and Special Deputy Lou Kovach, who had been alerted by radio by Aurora police. The deputies gave chase, exchanging shots with the fugitives.

Fritz radioed for help. Deputies in three other cars arrived with revolvers drawn to cover the fugitives.

The fugitives said they had been on the run continuously since their escape.

Fate of Lawrence Tax Plan In Hands of GOP Minority

By LEONARD A. UNGER

HARRISBURG (AP)—The fate of Gov. Lawrence's plan to raise 264 million dollars by expanding the sales tax lay squarely in the reluctant lap of the House Republican minority today.

Both Republican and Democratic legislative leaders agreed Tuesday to revive the defeated measure when the Legislature returns to Harrisburg next Tuesday.

But GOP spokesman made it plain that only the House Republican caucus could and would spell out the policy of whether to provide enough votes to help the Democratic majority pass the bill.

Neither Rep. Albert W. Johnson, Republican floor leader, nor Rep. W. Stuart Helm (Armstrong), House GOP policy committee chairman, would make a prediction on what course the caucus would adopt.

Johnson's only hint that some GOP help may be forthcoming was his statement in answer to a newsman's question whether the sales tax measure would be enacted in law next month.

"It certainly should be," he replied. The sales tax proposal, increasing the rate from 3 to 3½ per cent and extending its coverage to include such exempt items as beer and liquor and automobile dealers, was defeated last Thursday 86-119.

The governor said Tuesday that he expected some of the 17 House Democratic rebels who voted against the measure to change their minds on a second roll call.

Scanty Attire Still Okay on Boardwalk

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—Women can wear short shorts, tight-fitting dungarees, or turtleneck pants on the Atlantic City boardwalk, says the city commission.

The city's women's chamber of commerce had complained that the dress required on the boardwalk wasn't conservative enough.

The commission ruled Tuesday that casual dress has been accepted throughout the country and the city will just have to continue winking on the practice.

Revolt Against Chinese Red Rule Spreads to Hills

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—The Tibetan revolt against Chinese Communist rule has spread throughout the mountain land, an Indian newspaper close to the Nehru government reported today.

Reports persisted fighting had subsided in the capital of Lhasa, with the Reds still in command. But the pro-government Hindustan Times said the rebellion had spread to all corners of Tibet and that the Dalai Lama was "not in Chinese hands."

There was no official confirmation of the Hindustan Times report.

The whereabouts of the 23-year-old Asian monarch, worshipped by Tibetans as the reincarnation of Buddha, and his role in the rebellion still were vague.

The more general theory, however, was that the youthful god-king was still in his 1,000-room hillside palace under Communist surveillance.

House Vote Rejects Cuts In Spending

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bipartisan House vote for increased spending has given President Eisenhower a major legislative victory but may cost Republicans in Congress some 1960 campaign ammunition.

With heavy Democratic and Republican support, the House late Tuesday shouted approval of a $2,657,402,944 supplemental appropriation bill after handing its Appropriations Committee one of its worst setbacks in years.

The principal victory for Eisenhower lay in inclusion of 100 million dollars for the foreign aid development loan program. He had asked 225 millions but the committee had allowed nothing.

In addition, the House increased funds for eight other agencies for the remaining three months of the present fiscal year, though not as much as Eisenhower had asked.

None of the spending will directly affect the 77-billion-dollar budget Eisenhower has proposed for next year.

As the bill went to the Senate, it allotted $177,880,500 more than the committee had approved but still was $207,551,532 below the total requested by the President.

Extra money added to the committee's usually inviolate recommendations were the 100 million for the Development Loan Fund, $50,300,000 for defense education programs, $100,000 for the Recreation Resources Review Commission, 2½ million for the District of Columbia, $436,500 for in-patient veterans, $554,000 for out-patient care of veterans, $2,100,000 for the Treasury Department, 18 million for the Post Office Department and $20,000 for the Narcotics Bureau.

Much of the added money was asked to pay for salary increases Congress voted last year.

DeGaulle Warns West Must Remain in Berlin

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle said today any West Berlin blockade by East Germany would bring Soviet troops in the area face to face with the West.

"If the Western world sees the passage to Berlin barred," he told a news conference, "the Soviet would have to deal with the West."

De Gaulle said that the Western powers must not accept anything that might compromise the right of their troops to stay in Berlin or their passage to West Germany.

De Gaulle spoke to a group of 600 newsmen gathered for his first news conference as President of the Fifth Republic. It was also the first full-scale press conference ever held by a president at the Elysee Palace.

Previously the chief of state in France has been a figurehead.

Pinball Machines Are Vanishing in Lawrence

NEW CASTLE, Pa. (AP)—Owners of multiple-coin pinball machines apparently have voluntarily removed about 150 of the machines from Lawrence County taverns and stores since State Superior Court outlawed the devices.

Society Reports on Heavy Toll of Cancer

NEW YORK (AP)—Cancer kills 75,000 Americans each year—needlessly.

The American Cancer Society reported Tuesday that 45,000 Americans develop cancer each year.

Last year 150,000 were saved. The report said 75,000 more would have been saved by earlier diagnosis and treatment.

The two most rapidly increasing forms of cancer in older persons are leukemia cancer of the blood and lung cancer.

Church Petition Upholds Township Rejected Request

Two petitions have been filed against County Commissioners' and one upholding the Commissioners in their rejection of various petitions Monday.

Elk Township petitioners filed last evening in office of Warren County Board of Elections, another from Sugar Grove Borough was filed today, and an intervening petition was filed shortly before noon today.

Commissioners rejected and returned the petitions concerning beer and liquor in their respective districts to the petitioners in both Elk Township and Sugar Grove Borough after they failed to list occupations of the signers.

Plaintiffs said in their petitions that they are not required to list occupations of the electors. Both original papers were received on March 16, rejected and returned last Friday.

North Warren United Presbyterian Church upheld the Commissioners' rejection of the Conewango Township petition when they filed this morning. The North Warren paper said they would uphold Commissioners Mead, Crippen and Johnson for two reasons: 1. The Conewango Township petition was not properly filed under applicable law of the Commonwealth; and 2. petitions do not contain sufficient proper signatures "in that in excess of 172 signatures do not indicate the township or street address where applicable."

Conewango Township electors filed a petition against Commissioners Monday.

The petition matter is adding extra spark to the already heavy-running political scene in the County.

Search Is on for Victims of Freak Plant Disaster

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Searchers sifted through the ruptured interior of a meat packing plant today looking for two workers believed missing in a freak disaster which claimed five lives.

Five workers died Tuesday when an ice house atop the seven-story brick building collapsed. It ripped huge holes in each floor in its dive to the basement. Sixteen other workers were injured.

Tons of rubble and meat were piled at the base of the building. The stinging aroma of ammonia was prevalent as the searchers continued their task.

Scores of lives were saved when seconds elapsed before each floor section gave way. Workers said they heard muffled rumbles similar to an earthquake and scurried to safety.

The vessels are the S. S. Alstertal of the French Lines and the S. S. Johan Willen Friso of the Niagara Lines. Destination of the Alstertal is LeHarve, Bordeaux and Hamburg. The Willen Friso is destined for a New York port.

IKE WARNS ALLIES WILL NOT BE BLACKMAILED OR BLUFFED INTO DECISION

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today he believes the Western Allies will have to meet at the summit with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to get any sort of valid agreement on German problems.

But no one is going to command the United States and the other Western powers to show up at a top level conference, the President told a news conference emphatically.

The West will not be bluffed or blackmailed into going to the summit, he said.

Eisenhower thus said anew, although indirectly, that his attendance at any summit meeting will be contingent on progress at an earlier conference of East-West foreign ministers.

Officially whether he attaches any conditions to meeting at the summit with Khrushchev and this country's Western Allies.

At the time of Eisenhower's talk with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan there were reports from British quarters that Eisenhower had agreed unconditionally to go to a summit meeting.

Today the President noted that the reply of the Western Allies to a March 2 Soviet note regarding a summit conference has now been coordinated with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. That reply, he added, will be made public soon, and the answer to the matter of any conditions in connection with a summit meeting will be disclosed in that note.

But he went on to say that his convictions concerning a summit conference have been known for years and that he never has changed them.

He added he doesn't expect to change them unless something cataclysmic develops.

That was an obvious allusion to his statements, as recently as a week ago, that he would go to a summit meeting if developments in the meantime should warrant it.

At another point Eisenhower was asked to explain just what he had in mind when he said last week in a nationwide television-radio address that there must be justification for a summit meeting.

He replied that he meant progress—obviously at an earlier foreign ministers conference—that would justify a top level conference.

Still later at today's session with newsmen, Eisenhower was asked whether he felt anything worthwhile could come of a meeting with Soviet representatives at anything less than the summit level.

The President replied it is perfectly clear that Khrushchev is the only man with sufficient authority to negotiate for the Soviet Union with the West and make it stick.

Oregon Posse Seek Desperate Gunman

BROWNSVILLE, Ore. (AP)—Armed posmen searched warily today for a gunman who abducted one police chief, then shot another before hiding in the timbered Cascade Mountain foothills.

Sheriff George Miller said the gunman was Richard Allen Hunt, 27, a Harrisburg, Ore., dairy worker armed with a pistol, a .30 caliber carbine and 300 rounds of ammunition.

More than 100 policemen were pressed into the search for Hunt. They were joined by FBI agents from Portland.

The FBI said the 5-10, 160-pound Hunt, a former inmate of the Montana State Prison, was sought on a federal warrant that charged interstate transportation of a stolen car.

Grade School Boys Stage Simulated Holdup on Bank

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Frank about their prank on a bank, two youngsters hoped to be cleared of attempted holdup charges today. But they wished wistfully it hadn't happened.

Little Dan McKay, 9, and big Danny Husk, 13, school boys on Easter vacation, simulated a bank holdup Tuesday seeking some play money.

Trouble is, officials of the Bank of America—the world's largest—took them seriously. And a dragnet of 15 policemen and FBI agents took the bank seriously.

So, when the youngsters returned home from a movie, they were arrested and turned over to the San Francisco Youth Guidance Center. The charge: attempted bank robbery.

"They cried when we surrounded them," said Inspector William Porter.

En route to the movie the boys stopped at the Bank of America Mission branch. The bank had issued some play money as a promotion campaign. The boys said they had lost theirs and wanted more.

RECEIVES RARE PIECE OF WOOD

Richard Grace, Times-Mirror employee, whose hobby is wood-working, recently received the Miro wood he is shown holding in the above picture, from Fred Christian, of Pitcairn Island, South Seas.

Anyone familiar with the "Mutiny on the Bounty" will recall the name of Christian and the present day Mr. Christian is the great-grandson of Fletcher Christian, who in 1789, as acting mate of the British ship, "Bounty", took part in the mutiny and later fled to Pitcairn Island.

Now 73 years old, Mr. Christian and his crew sail 120 miles in a small open boat to uninhabited Henderson Island to cut Miro wood for their carvings which the islanders sell to passing boats that stop about every ten days.

Henderson Island has a curious connection with literary history. In 1820 the Nantucket whaler "Essex" was rammed and sunk in mid-Pacific by a sperm whale, and two of her life boats landed on Henderson Island. There was little water and no food, and the shipwrecked mariners put to sea again and finally were picked up near the South American coast after a three-month voyage. Many hardships reduced them to cannibalism. From this story of the "Essex", Herman Melville was inspired to write "Moby Dick".

Mr. Grace, who has a gift for making beautiful things out of wood, will employ his talent in making a pair of candlesticks out of the Miro which is reddish in color and has a novel texture. The scraps he will use for inlaying, which is another art he has mastered.

Fleeing Youth Finds $1,062 Cache in Cellar

FALL RIVER, Mass. (AP)—A youth ran into the cellar of a three-story house Tuesday to hide from a companion and discovered a cache of $1,062.

Some of the money was moldy and some had been chewed by mice. Bills were scattered on the floor. Other bills — all of small denomination — were found in bags in corners.

The mystery was solved by Miss Catherine Matthews, 56, who lives a couple of blocks away.

She said she put the money in the tenement because she was afraid it might be stolen if she kept it home.

Police returned the money with a suggestion she deposit it in a bank.

Witness to the warming trend and soaring temperatures is the rising Allegheny River. Reading this morning was 7.4 feet, a rise of one half foot since Tuesday morning. Rise was credited to runoff of snow on hillsides.

Increasing numbers of robins, bicycles and baby carriages are further proof of the first week of spring. Many housewives have started spring cleaning.

Housecleaning will undoubtedly bring about small outdoor fires. These harmless fires could grow into dangerous, costly grass and forest fires if not carefully attended. Observe all rules while burning trash through the warm, windy days.

There's a chance of showers tonight and Thursday. Weatherman promises continued high temperatures.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A precedent-setting decision by the State Supreme Court enables municipalities to improve public facilities without creating authorities if no financial obligation is incurred.

The court made the ruling Tuesday in a test case between Ephrata in Lancaster County and two residents.

The dispute centered around a proposal by the Ephrata Borough Council to issue $350,000 in non-debt revenue bonds for the improvement of its electrical system.

Many Forest Fires Reported in Penn'a

HARRISBURG (AP) — Forest fires which criss-crossed a wide area of central Pennsylvania Tuesday destroyed one home and kept hundreds of volunteer firemen busy.

A brush fire destroyed the combination log and stone home occupied by Forrest Noel in Londonderry Twp., near Middletown. Noel told foremen he had been burning brush when flames raged out of control and engulfed the dwelling.

Seven separate fires in state forest land from Edgemont, Md., to Mount Holly Springs in Cumberland County destroyed several hundred acres, William F. Vandestine, chief district forester, said.

More than 300 volunteers fought the fires which covered areas in Adams, Franklin and Cumberland counties.

Vandestine said some of the blazes were believed to be the work of an arsonist. An investigation is under way.

Drivers were given a word of caution today as Easter vacation for most county school students began with the closing of the institutions today.

With balmy weather here, many kiddies will be playing ball, playing on sidewalks and taking full advantage of the out-doors.

Both State and local police urged the utmost caution while driving on streets and suburban areas during the vacation time.

Drive carefully and permit the youngsters to enjoy a safe, happy Easter.

TAX HIKE IN KANE

An increase of three mills in the 1959 real estate and occupation levies over the previous year's rate was adopted Monday night at a special meeting of the Kane borough council. The new rate is 26 mills divided into: 16, general purposes; 4, street improvements; 2, street lights; and 4, sinking funds. A deadlock developed at previous adjourned meetings, when the vote was three to three on the millage increase. The special meeting was called to restudy the tax ordinance. A budget of $178,000 had been adopted previously. A per capita tax of $5 was also adopted previously.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

RADIO and TV

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—George Jean Nathan wrote in his book on burlesque that Sherry Britton has "an allergy to clothes." Now Miss Britton would like to thoroughly understand that she has overcome her allergy.

Next Friday (March 27, 8 p.m., EST) she will be seen in "A Girl Named Daisy," one in the new "Elly Queen" series on NBC-TV.

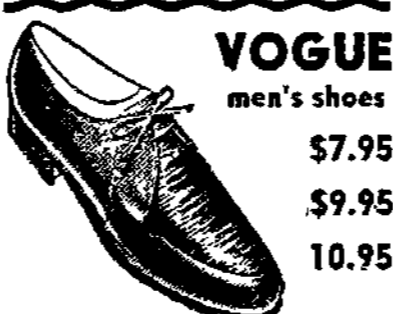

From the neck up Miss Britton has an I. Q. of 157 and small, classical features rather like those ascribed to Helen of Troy. From the neck down she has attributes, too.

As Miss Britton explained it, her alleged allergy to clothes has been transformed into a slight allergy to the art of taking "em off. She demonstrates her art occasionally in nightclubs these days only to pay the rent and the grocery bill while her mind lingers on loftier ambitions in television and the theater.

"My problem is one of identification," she said. "I've appeared in 30 plays and television dramas. It's years since I worked in a burlesque theater. The last time my name was associated with burlesque was at Carnegie Hall where I narrated 'Best of Burlesque'—and received wonderful notices without taking off even a glove.

Mirrored in Our Times

At present writing the sun shines brightly and even though it has a nasty way of highlighting slightly smudged windows and dust-covered areas, it's still a welcome sight. The mud has dried somewhat but enough moisture remains to assure excellent tracking (into the house, that is). Many laid low with whatever virus is popular right now, look wistfully out and wish they could really enjoy today... we're writing this Tuesday, so if the weather is lousy as you read, please take note! Churches are conducting daily Holy Week observances as Easter Day approaches. Most retail stores remained open all day today and will close from 12 noon until 3 p.m. as employees attend traditional three-hour services Good Friday. Optimists are readying Easter parade ensembles; others air fur coats and anticipate wearing them Sunday. Mothers are reaching for white eggs and colored dyes in preparation for the annual mess!

Legionnaires at Chief Cornplanter Post, 135, are busily engaged in getting ready for the annual Easter Egg Hunt Saturday afternoon at 2:00 at War Memorial Field. Local merchants contributed generously this year with over 700 prizes awaiting the lucky youngsters. It is hoped that adults will give the kids a chance to find the prizes this year. Other hunts have been somewhat marred with grown-ups becoming too spirited and joining the race for the special eggs. Everything is a lot more fun if the kids are turned loose unhindered.

If you're weary of waiting for spring's first little posies to pop and hungry for a sight of those lucious colors one associates with crocui, tulips, hyacinth and daffodils, we know how you can enjoy almost the same thrill immediately! What one sees with the eyes and then enjoys through sense of smell can create a strong illusion that spring is here to stay. Why not try our way today?

Try Prince Matchabelli's exquisite "Spring Fancy," a fragrance so utterly lovely you'll cherish it always.

Now at The Warren Drug "Spring Fancy" makes its appearance in breathtaking new packages—subtle yet glowing flowerlike colors accent the beauty of the product itself. It's like walking into a garden! Choose cream sachet, spray cologne or dusting powder (with luxury puff) today. Priced from $1.50 to $2.50 at Warren Drug Store.

One is forever reading what men look for in a woman, but what does a woman look for first in a man. Perhaps we should re-phrase and ask what does a woman look at first when she looks at a man. Sure, we know that there might be considerable argument over the answer, but we have it on good authority that she looks first at his shirt and tie. Like everyone else, we have our pet peeves, the principal one being a certain TV commercial spouter who always appears to be wearing a shirt that needs changing. Without colored television, we're not sure about the tie—but also add that he could use a shave (he talks about electric razors, too!) Now, we are sidetracked—but not entirely. We merely want to call your attention to—

The Style Shop, where the spring supply of good looking shirts and handkerchiefs has created real interest. No matter where a man is heading in the world, he also needs a smart hat. Who says the ladies take over the Easter parade? Just stop at The Style Shop and they'll disprove that theory. Take one Don Richards suit, add the right shirt, a perfect tie, a jaunty chapeau, a spring topcoat if it's chilly—and man you're in—the Easter Parade!

Happy Easter to one and all.

Japan Nation of Faithful Wives Survey Reveals

TOKYO (AP)—Japan is a nation of philandering husbands and faithful wives, a local Dr. Kinsey reported today.

Prof. Shinichi Asayama of Osaka Municipal University estimated that 60 to 70 per cent of all Japanese husbands have sex relations with women other than their wives, but less than 8 per cent of the wives are unfaithful.

"Japanese husbands, compared to American husbands, are five times safer as far as their wives' fidelity is concerned," he said.

The 51-year-old geneticist published his findings in the leading woman's magazine "Fujin Koron" (Women's Forum) after questioning 257 married women and 182 husbands. The magazine devoted a special issue to "The Problem of Men."

Asayama also surveyed 4,338 unmarried men and 1,200 single working girls between the ages of 20 and 30. The incidence of sexual experience among the men ranged from 20 per cent of the 20-year-olds to 75 per cent of the 30-year-olds. Nonvirginity among the women increased from 18 to 28 per cent.

Of the unmarried men, said Asayama, "The rate was lowest among young bank employees. Perhaps their occupation made them as solid as their banks' safes."

He attributed the widespread infidelity among married men to three things: (1) the traditional system of marriages arranged by parents; (2) widespread tacit approval of prostitution, and (3) the training traditionally given respectable Japanese girls which "makes them technical wives and mothers but fails to develop women with the ability to respond positively to the manly desires of their husbands."

EASTER ON THE HIGHWAYS

An Associated Press dispatch from Harrisburg reports Colonel Frank G. McCartney, State Police Commissioner, as saying that all available manpower will be assigned to highway patrol duty over the Easter holiday week-end.

The commissioner urges motorists to co-operate in keeping accidents to a minimum by observing traffic regulations and allowing enough time to reach destinations.

There is plenty of evidence that the holiday tourist travel has already started and would increase during the next three days.

STEP IN RIGHT DIRECTION

Announcement that the Department of Highways is now engaged in constructing splash guards on the west curb of the Hickory street bridge, with indications that parking on the structure will be prohibited, is news that has been too long delayed. Worth Hammond, superintendent of Highways, is quoted as saying parking on the bridge may be halted after the work is completed.

It will be remembered parking on the east side of the bridge was stopped years ago, soon after it was opened for traffic, following several minor accidents.

In later years parking was permitted mainly to help provide accommodations for guests at the Carver Hotel.

The structure has always been one of the most sightly along the river, marred by the string of cars that usually have cluttered the west side of the highway.

Now would be a good time to put an end to the practice, although it must be admitted it may prove a hardship for a time for some of the business people in the area who have used the bridge as a parking lot for years.

STUDENT DAY

Warren High was the scene of an interesting program today when Student Day, set up by Student Council, was observed with student teachers, elected by each class, taking over as substitutes in the various offices, with Joe Massa acting as principal. As explained in a release from the news-writing class: "The purpose of Student Day is to give students the experience in teaching and running a school." All indications are that the event was most successful, with everyone benefiting from the experiences enjoyed.

WORLD TODAY

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Taxpayers can get double vision looking at the Washington juggling act.

President Eisenhower proposed a budget which he said could be balanced. He offered to show how. But his figures were so thin and flimsy only magic could make them out right.

The Democrats, singing under his charge that they're the big spenders, are trying some magic of their own, plus defiance. They are complaining his budget is much too low for what the country needs.

Eisenhower, calling on the Democratic-run Congress to keep down spending in the 1960 fiscal year starting July 1, offered a budget of 77 billion dollars and estimated revenue at $77,100,000,000. That is cutting it pretty thin.

Eisenhower figured the government would wind up 100 million dollars to the good if Congress agreed to raise 600 million more in revenue by boosting the gasoline tax and postal rates.

It is a pretty good bet Congress won't.

So the idea of a balanced budget already looks academic, particularly in view of what Congress already has done to some of Eisenhower's thoughts on spending.

But what Eisenhower proposed and what the Democrats are doing will give politicians of both parties plenty of ground for argument right up to election day in 1960.

Remember: In this present 1959 fiscal year which ends June 30, the budget is already unbalanced with a deficit of perhaps 13 billion dollars. It's the 1960 budget, starting July 1, that Eisenhower has talked of balancing.

He asked $1,375,000,000 for this country's subscription to the International Monetary Fund. He wanted the expense charged to the 1959 fiscal year, with its already well-known deficit.

The Democratic-run Senate voted the money but charged it to fiscal 1960 expenses. If the House goes along, the Democrats can argue Eisenhower himself threw his own 1960 budget out of balance by asking this money. Chances are in this case the House won't go along.

It would be a rare taxpayer who could figure out the difference between charging an expense to the 1959 budget or the 1960 budget.

Then there's the Development Loan Fund, a government agency which makes long-term loans to underdeveloped countries to get them moving. Last year Congress voted for fiscal 1959-225 million dollars less than Eisenhower asked for this fund.

But fiscal 1959 doesn't end till June 30 and the fund is already running dry. Eisenhower asked that the 225 million, dropped last year, be voted now and charged to 1959.

The House Appropriations Committee voted to give him not a dime. Later this year, of course, it could vote to give him the 225 million along with what he asked for next year, but charge it all to fiscal 1960, thus throwing his budget further out of balance.

This, too, the Democrats could point to as an example how the economy - preaching Eisenhower was piling up expense. But Tuesday the full House overruled its committee and voted Eisenhower 100 million to be charged to 1959 expenses.

Here's a good example of Congress voting more than Eisenhower asked. He wanted for fiscal 1960 about 53 million dollars for loans and grants to communities in distress because of continuing unemployment.

The Senate voted 389 million. The House has yet to act, but will probably vote more than Eisenhower asked. The argument, of course, is that Eisenhower didn't ask enough.

There'll be plenty more of this until only a taxpayer who is an auditor and has the time could juggle the figures.

"Can I Have the Help Wanted Section?"

Here and There

Kite and model-flying youngsters taking advantage of brisk winds and the approach of warmer weather are urged by a Pennsylvania Electric Company spokesman to heed the advice being offered by Reddy Kilowatt, sprightly voice of the electric industry. Reddy suggests that kites be kept well away from electric wires and TV antennas and that a dry cotton string always be used. He also warns against climbing electric line poles and substation fences, as well as trees near these facilities, in attempts to recover a kite gone astray. These same precautions should be observed in flying model airplanes or shooting "missiles."

"Pick your kite-flying spots carefully," Reddy advises. "Select an open field that is fairly level, has a minimum of obstacles, and is away from streets and roads. Never run across a road while flying a kite. To avoid endangering your life, never fly a kite with metal in the frame, or with tinsel string, wire or any twine that has metal in it. If cords like these come in contact with electric lines, you may lose your life. Even with cotton string, never fly a kite in the rain. Never go near fallen electric wires or climb electric poles, towers or substation fences. If your kite gets caught in electric wires or on a pole, let it alone. It is better to lose a kite than your life." In elaborating on this advice from the versatile Reddy, the electric company spokesman added: "Kite flying is just about as much fun as it ever was, and remembering their own youth, parents should instruct their children in safe practices. We, of course, are particularly anxious that no child run the risk of getting hurt around electric lines or substations. Most children know the danger of flying kites near such installations, climbing electric line poles or other electric structures. But there are always some more adventurous than others, and new kite flyers are coming along each year."

Lowell Thomas, the man who has scoured the earth — from pole to pole, from the Tibetan "roof" to the sub-cellars of reeking tropic jungles — to bring to his fellow citizens an understanding of the world in which they live, now presents what may well be the most stimulating contribution of his long career. Over the CBS TV network March 27th, Mr. Thomas viewers will participate in a month-long voyage in an ancient Arabian dhow — watching its single lateen sail billow in pleasant breezes or flap in the gale or hang idle in the calm over the 3,500 miles of the ancient trade route from Bahrain to the Persian Gulf to the spice island of Zanzibar. But this journey, we suspect, is no mere travelogue — no artful colorcast to fill an hour's leisure — but rather a parable in pictures. Aboard this deliberate, unwieldy vessel which has remained unchanged for thousands of years and is still loaded as in Biblical times with baskets of Basra dates for the trading ports along the African coast, there may come to the millions of armchair sailors a sudden flash of understanding. They may see in this anachronism which persists — like many more — in this day of jet transportation and atomic missiles, a symbol of the mistrust, misunderstanding, suspicion and fear that presently grips all the world. But if this episode of the "High Adventure" series turns out to be a forceful sermon, it will definitely be no preaching. Thomas is essentially a reporter-with-a-camera, roaming the waters that Sindbad the Sailor knew in the days of the Arabian Nights, and seeking to record the spirit and excitement of these days that are not yet gone. And certainly his sponsors, the United Motors and Delco-Remy divisions of General Motors, have had no thought of moralizing in these glimpses of the little-known Still, even though Cap'n Thomas dhow brings back no chained slaves to Bahrain as earlier sailors did — and some still may — an overpowering sense of the incongruities of our own times is hardly avoidable. It should give one to think — perhaps on whether reaching the moon or comprehending our fellow man is the more important.

ON THE JOB!

While the U. S. and East German governments were still at an impasse last summer on the release of the American helicopter crew and passengers forced down in East Germany, discussions by the Red Cross societies of the two countries resulted in the men's liberation. Again ARC was on the job, giving service of an unusual sort to the Armed Forces. Before the men's release, the American Red Cross had arranged for delivery of packages and mail to the prisoners.

Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — What are you going to live on when you're old?

Even some of the rock 'n' roll generation may think about that once in a while. And the U. S. Supreme Court's decision on variable annuities brings up today all the many forms of retirement income that are available to Americans.

A rock 'n' roller is likely to dismiss the question of cash in old age by saying the government will take care of it. He means old age pensions, and all the other benefits that federal and state governments hand out these days.

Workers also either have or hope for some form of retirement pension. Many civil servants have similar pension plans. Some unions have funds for aiding their retired members.

Then you come to the list of income which an individual provides for himself entirely on his own. These forms compete with each other for the individual's savings. This is one reason the variable annuity was brought before the U. S. Supreme Court.

The usual type of annuity as sold by insurance companies provides for a fixed return in dollars.

The variable annuity offers payment in dollar amounts that go up and down in line with market value of the corporate stocks into which the insurance company has put the reserve funds involved. The argument is that stock prices will go up when the cost of living rises and that the annuity holder will have a fairly stable standard of living.

Many insurance officials challenge this argument. They say the stock market is no reliable barometer of inflation, nor is continuing inflation as inevitable as some contend.

There are forms of insurance besides annuities that have retirement pay features.

Another competitor is the mutual fund. Holders of this form of security also have their returns tied to the investing skill of the fund's management and to some extent to the rise and fall of the market value of such investments.

Dealers in stocks and bonds also tend to look upon the variable annuity as a competitor. Many persons buy stocks and bonds with the aim of assuring an income in old age.

Dealers and exchange officials naturally prefer that individuals buy stocks through them rather than through insurance companies. They hold that if insurance companies do enter this field they should be subject to the same regulation as are the security dealers or those floating new securities.

SURGERY FOR COLON POCKETS

Diverticulitis is becoming a surgical problem because more and more of its victims are living long enough to develop complications. This is one price people pay for living to a ripe old age. There is consolation in the fact that the procedure usually is successful and the majority of patients feel so well they wish the operation had been done 10 years sooner.

Diverticula are small pockets protruding from the wall of the large intestine. They arise after age 40 and many persons have hundreds of these pouches, especially in the last part of the bowel in the lower left side of the abdomen.

These lesions form in places where the small blood vessels pierce the wall of the intestine. This creates a weakened area, which begins to bulge after tiny pocket forms. In this respect, diverticula are related to the aging process.

The condition usually goes unnoticed—unless X-rays are taken, no one knows about its existence. Pain is noted when the pockets become inflamed through irritation or infection. Distress may be mild or severe, depending upon complications.

Peritonitis develops when the inflamed pockets break open and the intestinal contents leak into the abdomen. This is not as severe as peritonitis from a ruptured appendix but frequent recurrences are likely to cause abscesses, adhesions, chronic inflammation, bowel obstruction, or bleeding.

The majority with diverticulitis are not incapacitated to a marked degree. They avoid trouble by eating bland foods and eschewing alcoholic debauches. In some instances, pain may be severe enough to warrant a few days in bed.

Surgery is recommended when the infected area is confined to one part of the bowel and the owner is incapacitated too often for his own comfort or safety. The involved segment is removed and the open ends of the intestine are sewed together. Once healing occurs, the individual need not be as careful about his diet.

TOMORROW: Degenerative eye changes.

EYE MISHAP

F. L. writes: Two weeks ago, I bent over to sneeze, when I straightened up I could not see out of one eye. This condition has cleared up some but I still have blurred vision on that side. I feel lost when things don't look clear. What could have caused this condition?

REPLY

When a visual disturbance appears this quickly, the most likely cause is a vascular accident, such as obstruction of hemorrhage from one of the retinal vessels. Eye examination will be needed to make the diagnosis.

IT NEED NOT BE

Mrs. D. writes: Is a woman's health affected by a miscarriage?

REPLY

Not if the uterus empties itself completely and there is no residual infection.

VEAL AND ACNE

* D. R. writes: Is eating veal bad for a person with acne?

REPLY

No. Rich, highly seasoned, and fried foods ought to be omitted. But diet is only one of the many facets of the acne problem.

ARTHRITIS IN THE MENOPAUSE

Mrs. G. writes: Does the change of life cause arthritis?

REPLY

This is a moot question because arthritis is prone to develop around age 50 and its presence at that time might be co-incidental.

NEWBORN'S COLOR

M. B. writes: Is it true that Negro babies are born white and turn black later?

REPLY

No. They resemble the parents in coloring.

Common Market Looms Large in Europe and America

By PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Increasing attention is being given here to development of the "European Common Market." Its official, controlling organization is known as the Commission for the European Economic Community—CEE. It opened for business Jan. 1 with six members—France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, Luxembourg and The Netherlands—and a headquarters in Brussels.

It is being watched not only as a possible source of competition for American-made products and U.S. labor but also as an opportunity for American business expansion abroad.

This latter could come either through stepped-up sales campaigns in Europe, licensing of American processes to European competitors, or the acquisition of branch production plants in Europe, to take advantage of lower labor costs.

Any way this development goes, it is of interest not only to American exporters and importers but to every American worker whose output goes into international trade.

IN OVERSIMPLIFICATION, ONE MAIN purpose of CEEC was to create an American-type mass market in western Europe. The benefits expected are increased trade volume, reduction of costs through mass production methods and at the same time increased wages and standards of living for European workers.

The initial action was a 10 per cent reduction of tariffs between the six countries on Jan. 1. A second 10 per cent cut is scheduled for next Jan. 1. But these cuts are being extended to all members of GATT—the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, to which the U.S. subscribes.

There has not yet been time to measure accurately the effects of these changes on world trade patterns.

AN EXTREME CONCERN EVERYWHERE is that CEEC will develop into a supercartel that will head down all competition. From the American point of view, the anxiety of not being able to get a piece of the European mass market is considered less than the fear of European firms capturing a larger share of the U.S. market. But U.S. tariffs may turn out to be high enough to block most imports from Europe.

American labor costs are roughly double European. But American productivity is higher. And so far higher U.S. costs have not priced American goods out of European markets.

AT THE PRESENT TIME, EUROPE WANTS American capital development. This position may be reversed if U.S. business gets too big a share of the European market. But today it offers opportunity for U.S. industry to establish new lines.

If U.S. automakers, for instance, do get into small car production and develop lines that will compete with European models, there would be some prospect of recapturing part of the declining foreign market for big automobiles.

The major uncertainty, however, is whether the European Common Market will mean a reduction in U.S. job opportunities through competition with European production.

The alternative would be for American business to gain from greater prosperity throughout the world and the creation of new markets in Asia and Africa through generally expanded trade with the developing countries.

That way it could mean expansion of U.S. job opportunities, needed now to take care of reduced employment from automation and a constantly growing labor force.

Kinzua Auxiliary Is Making Future Plans

The meeting of Brant-Bentley Unit 747, Kinzua American Legion, was held at the home of the president, Mrs. James Snyder, with eight members present.

It was voted to order more poppies, as the committee for the 40th birthday party of American Legion used poppies for its decorating theme. Use of these poppies help all veterans in hospitals.

Making crepe paper poppies provides beneficial occupation for thousands of disabled war veterans in hospitals and convalescent work-rooms throughout the country, as the American Legion Auxiliary prepares for the annual observance of Poppy Day in May. Mrs. Angelo Ditonto and Mrs. Vincent Madonna are co-chairmen of the poppy day activities May 21.

Veterans enjoy making the poppies, as the work helps them pass tedious hospital hours, and gives them the encouraging experience of earning money again. Many become very skillful at shaping the little flowers from red and green crepe paper and wire stem. It is hoped everyone will honor the war dead by wearing one of these poppies on Poppy Day, and at the same time think of the disabled veterans who make flowers for auxiliaries.

Final plans were made for the party to be held by the Legion and Auxiliary Saturday night, with John Antonini, Ridgway, national alternate executive committeeman, and James McMurray, St. Marys, commander of the 28th district, present. Mrs. Ditonto reported she has sent over 500 coupons to the state department for the president's project.

She also reported the Junior Auxiliary, at the last meeting, made favors for the birthday party; also Easter favors for trays of veterans at Warren State Hospital. Mrs. Carl Peterson was hostess.

Next meeting, with Mrs. Charles Cataldo serving, will be held at 1:30 p.m. Thursday at the Legion Hall, when they will dye eggs for the Easter Egg Hunt the Kinzua Legion is holding for children of the community at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the ball field.

The group sent a remembrance to Mrs. James Pomilio, a hospitalized member, and each one was asked to remember her with cards.

Next meeting will be April 2, with Vera Snyder and Mrs. James Snyder serving.

Following the meeting, Mrs. Snyder showed home movies. Lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Vincent Madonna and Mrs. Harry Hancock.

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — "I don't want to play Lady MacBeth or be a big fat star," said Audrey Meadows. "I just want to keep working."
"I'm a kind of slap-happy character. I've loved every show I've been on."
And tian-haired Audrey, the China-born daughter of an Episcopal missionary — she used to teach Sunday School — has been a standout in practically every branch of the entertainment field.
She started as a concert singer at 16. She sang and danced in Broadway musicals. She became known as television's brightest, breeziest young comedienne.
After a two-year layoff, she resumed her career as a quiz show performer and guest star. This Friday night she tries a new role, pinch-hitting for Edward R. Murrow.
"I'm glad they had a sinking spell and hired me for this job," she said, cheerfully. "I've always wanted to be a newspaper gal."
"I've been very fortunate in the shows I've been on and the people I've worked with," said Audrey, who has a nice trait of always speaking well of the other fellow.
She brings a great gusto to living and enjoys a varied life. Because the only musical instrument she can play is the piano—"with one finger"—she plans to take lessons on the guitar.

"I suffer from the feeling there isn't time to do everything I want to," she said. "But I guess if there were time, that would be complete boredom, wouldn't it? It would be frightening."
Her favorite color is bright red. She says it makes her feel good. She likes to read, water ski, cook and watch baseball and football.
The only thing that bores her is "a closed mind." The thing that attracts her most is "a curious mind."
"So many people today are negative," she said. "I believe in kindness and a faith in something or someone beyond ourselves. If we all practiced kindness on a larger scale, we'd have fewer misunderstandings on all levels."
"I don't believe much in anger or fear."
"The only thing that really makes me angry is the sight of injustice. The only thing that scares me is the elements—hurricanes, lightning, thunder."
"I don't have many social fears. If there is a job I know I can't do, I don't take it."
Asked what her epitaph would be if she could write it herself, Audrey grinned and said: "She tried—poor soul!"

Suggest Plans For Maneuverable Man-Space Ship

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A top level Defense Department strategist has proposed that the nation launch a program for a man-space vehicle that would be maneuverable like an airplane.
David A. Young, chief of the Technology Division of the Advanced Research Projects Agency, told the opening session of the American Rocket Society's flight testing conference Monday that

No Nagging Backache Means a Good Night's Sleep

Nagging backache, headache, or muscular aches and pains may come on with over-exertion, emotional upsets or day to day stress and strain. And folks who eat and drink unwise sometimes suffer mild bladder irritation... with that restless, uncomfortable feeling.
If you are miserable and worn out because of these discomforts, Doan's Pills often help by their pain relieving action, by their soothing effect to ease bladder irritation, and by their mild diuretic action through the kidneys—tending to increase the output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes.
So if nagging backache makes you feel dragged-out, miserable, with restless, sleepless nights, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, get the same happy relief millions have enjoyed for over 60 years. Ask for new, large, economy size and save money. Get Doan's Pills today!

a "go for broke" campaign could ready a maneuverable, recoverable space vehicle within three years.
Young called his space ship program Mrs-V (pronounced missus-vee). He told newsmen before his speech that the government is giving only "lip service" to Project Mercury—the man in space program.
"We're not stepping up the man in space program as rapidly as we should," Young told the 700 missile engineers and scientists attending the two-day conference.
Young described the Mrs-V as a type of space plane carrying a 20,000 pound capsule for space passengers that could be lifted aloft by a half-million-pound thrust engine.
If the project was started on a top priority basis, he said, it would run parallel with the man in space project.
The program, which would cost about 300 or 400 million dollars, would consist of firing the ship high in space where it would be able to maneuver in flight and later return to earth.
"We are dwelling too long on the fringes of real space activity and are not pushing with proper speed the critical and rewarding aspects of space," Young warned.
The Mrs-V program, he said, at present is only a "collection of ideas largely unaccepted by planners."

News of Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — So Diane Varsi says she's through with Hollywood. If she makes it stick, she'll join a small but distinguished band who quit films when they were ahead.

Oldtimers can cite Gareth Hughes, romantic star of the silents. He turned his back on the movies to serve as a missionary among poor Indians of Nevada and remained there until felled by ill health recently.

Several stars were retired by the advent of sound, but at least three film beauties left pictures voluntarily in the early thirties. Billie Dove, Dorothy MacKail and Evelyn Knapp dropped out for marriage careers.

William S. Hart's career had been slipping, but he was still a big name in Hollywood when he troubles, he shuffled off to his Newhall ranch to end his years in bitterness.

One of the most promising dramatic stars of the '30s, Jane Bryan, left her career abruptly to become the wife of drug tycoon Justin Dart. Colleen Townsend dropped out of films to devote her life to religion with her husband, Rev. Louis Evans Jr. Peggy Dow left to become the wife of Oklahoma oil man Walter Helmerich.

June Haver quit films to enter a convent, later returned to Hollywood but stayed retired as the wife of Fred MacMurray. Then there's that Kelly girl from Philadelphia.

There are others, like Fred Astaire and Betty Hutton, who announced their retirements and recanted. Film circles hope that will be true of Diane Varsi, whose unbridled but intriguing talent is needed in star-scarce Hollywood.

Letters to Editor

904 Penna. Ave. E.
Warren, Pa.
March 24, 1959.

Mr. Ed Lowrey
Times Office
Warren, Pa.
Dear Editor:

I was pleased to hear the decision of the County Commissioners in not placing a liquor vote on the ballot for Cone-wango Twp., but to think that those favoring liquor want to fight for their interests is a great grief to me and I am glad others feel the same as I do.

It is a shame that in a community as fine as Warren County, as conducive to health and happiness as it is, we have so many drinking places already, so many people drinking, both men and women, young and old alike.

We have too many accidents, arrests, alcoholics, broken homes and sad people caused by drink already to want it increased or spread farther.

I would favor a ballot in Warren Boro. to vote out liquor rather than one in Warren County to increase it.

Thanking you for freedom of the press and praying we at this Easter season may think soberly and live righteously, I am yours for a better Community.

He won the second heart trick with the king and played ace and another heart right back. He would have to play the clubs eventually but maybe West would lead them for him.

No such luck. The shift was to a diamond and Sonny had to go after clubs himself.

He needed three tricks in the club suit and proceeded to make them by leading low to

Hold Off Action On Coin Machines Officials Advise

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Justice Department Monday advised district attorneys in Pennsylvania to hold off seizing multi-coined pinball machines pending final court action on their legality.

A memorandum was sent to the 67 county district attorneys by Frank P. Lawley Jr., deputy attorney general.

The State Superior Court last Wednesday upheld a Fayette County court decision that the machines are illegal gambling devices.

Lawley's memorandum stated in part:

nine would still have stopped the suit.

A little study will show that Sonny's play would have produced three club tricks against any combination except four or more to the queen-ten in the East hand and that no play would have worked against that holding.

"At the present time we do not know whether a petition for allocatur will be filed. In the event it is not, or that the same is denied, so that this court ruling opinion represents the final word, this office will at that time issue a policy statement with relations to machines now in operation in the state."

"What we told them, in effect, was not to take any action now," Lawley told a newsman.

Meanwhile, Dist. Atty. Huette F. Dowling of Dauphin County, said he would hold off any action in his area "until we know if this is final business."

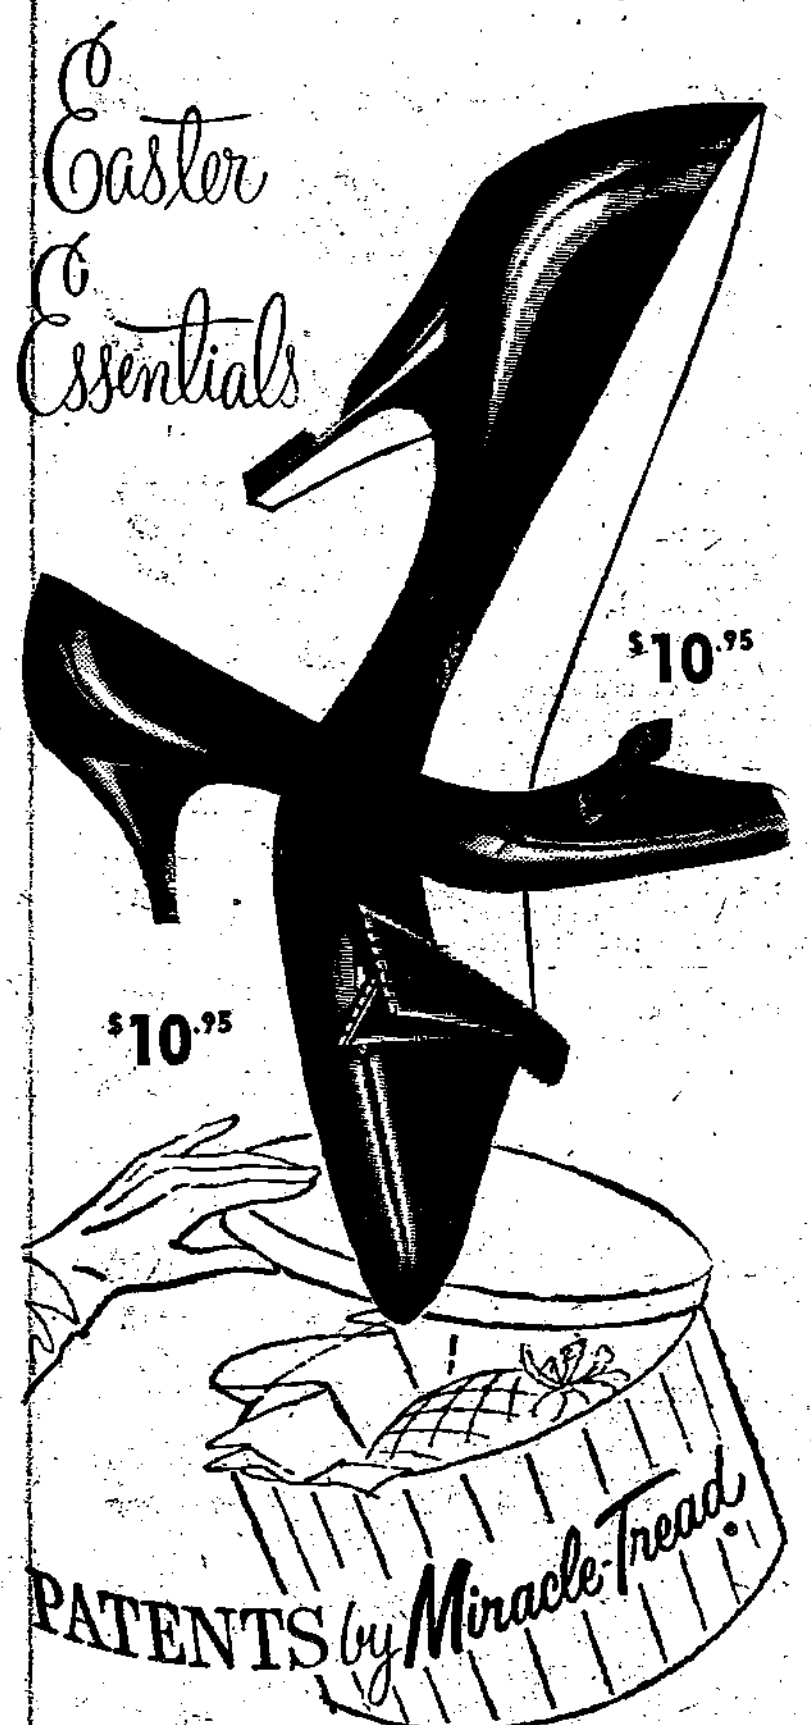

"The letter I received from the State Justice Department contained a copy of the court ruling which I would have had to wait two or three weeks for if the Justice Department had not sent it," said Dowling. Earlier, Lt. Col. A. H. Dohlstrom, deputy state police commissioner, said his department intended no action until the decision was studied and a consultation had been held with the State Justice Department.

CENTENARIAN HONORED

"The Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania extends greetings and felicitations to Mrs. Abbie Lewis, born April 1, 1858, in recognition of one whose life span exemplifies healthful living." So reads the plaque presented yesterday morning to the remarkable centenarian, who resides with her son, Ray Lewis, 115 Frank street. Dr. Follmer Yerg, her personal physician, made the presentation. Others on hand for the significant award included (l to r): Dr. Julius Fino, president of Warren County Medical Society; Dr. A. J. O'Connor, secretary; Mrs. Ray Lewis; Dr. Yerg and Ray Lewis.

The handsome plaque, the third of its kind to be awarded in the area, was signed by John T. Farrell, M. D., president of Pennsylvania State Medical So-

Area Residents Urged to Guard Against Fires

HARRISBURG—Secretary of Forests and Waters Maurice K. Goddard greeted the arrival of spring with a warning for all Pennsylvanians anxious to get their "Green thumbs" to work. "Like myself," the Forests and Waters Secretary said, "everyone is getting the urge to clean up his property."

"Farmers start cleaning up their hedge rows and grass-covered crop and pasture lands. Householders clean up yards, garden patches, and trash heaps. 'Cottage owners clean out the winter's accumulation of debris. 'Cemeteries are spruced up and dump areas are tidied."

"In almost all cases, burning seems to be the easiest and fastest method for disposing of the winter's accumulation of unwanted trash and debris. When fire is used to straighten up an area near large grass, brush, and forest tracts, the seeds of a major forest fire are always present."

"Warm weather, gusty March winds, and dry grass and leaves make an explosive mixture."

He added: "In 1958, the Commonwealth set one of its best forest fire records. Through the cooperation of every Pennsylvanian, the foresters and fire control personnel of the Department of Forests and Waters would like to make 1959 an even better year."

"It will help if everyone follows the following simple rules: 'Farmers and contractors keep burning off field or brush piles

Burn in late evening hours when the air is damper and calmer. Burn after a rain. Never leave trash, debris, or brush fires unattended. Use lots of water to put out the embers. Burn small amounts at a time. "And, finally, always keep water and tools with you as you attend the fire."

ABILITY MIXED WITH DETERMINATION

The Co-ed Who Broke Science Barrier for Women

BY AILEEN SNOODY, NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Fortunately for science, a young Pennsylvania coed clasped her 1897 Vassar diploma and set out to make a place for herself and other women in the laboratory.

This spring Marie Reimer, professor-emeritus of Columbia University's Barnard College, will become a 50-year member in the American Chemical Society. Professor Reimer and one Canadian will be the only women among 77 scientists honored at the April meeting.

This event puts a masculine stamp of approval on her pioneering as an organic chemist. Through the years she helped break down many barriers thrown up to keep women from math and science work.

For example, she played a major role in having women admitted to the Columbia College of Physicians and Surgeons. She was the first woman professor at Columbia in addition to investigating the first course of microanalysis to be taught in this country.

The fact that she was the "best-dressed on the faculty," coupled with a theatrical flair, made her lectures fun and memorable.

But drama in the classroom was second nature to her. Her father was a musician and her mother a successful character actress.

Now 84, Professor Reimer often reminisces while sitting in her upper Manhattan apartment. She still firmly believes, as she once told her students, "a woman can do anything she wants to do."

With her dark eyes sparkling she comments on her reception in a Berlin school soon after she left Vassar. "The male students treated me so piously and properly."

She maintains, as she did when she joined the Barnard faculty in 1903, "Mind has nothing to do with your sex. There is as good a mind in a girl as in a boy."

If women want to be scientists they should be. She produced hundreds of believing this. As a result they entered medicine, teaching and research.

She worked to put competent women on an equal footing with men in the field. But from experience she warned early students that "there is a prejudice against women and they would have to work harder at a job than a man."

A former student and friend, Prof. Helen Downes, adds that "Professor Reimer's standards were high. She was a teacher of the old school who believed in a certain detachment of the pupil and the teacher. In recommending a student she was critical and showed no sentimentality."

To this day, Professor Downes adds, "I would not think of addressing her by her first name any more than I would a president's wife."

Besides her many articles for chemistry journals, Professor Reimer also wrote of the need and place of women in science. In 1910, 579 women graduated in the general classification of "chemists, assayers and metallurgists." In the same group were 15,694 men.

Women still represent only one-twentieth of the nation's scientists, although they make up one-third of the labor force.

The figure might be less if successful teachers such as Marie Reimer hadn't appeared on the scene.

"She never dropped her lectures," a former student reveals. "And students remember her, even if they don't remember her chemical formulas."

year-old girl, missing four hours, was found unharmed Tuesday night after some 200 volunteers had turned out to search for her. Desi Dee King was found barefooted and with her three dogs about 1½ miles from her home at Pittsville, 10 miles east of here.

Camping Committee Mailing Out Folders

Warren-Forest County Girl Scout camp committee announces established camp folders will be mailed to about 1200 girls in the council next week. The two sessions of camp will accommodate only 144 girls, and girls in the area are urged to register early, as the camp will be opened after May 15 to out-of-council Scouts.

For girls wanting to attend a session of camp but unable to afford it there are camperships available to pay all or part of the expenses. The list of camperships, made available through interested persons, organizations, and service clubs, is not yet complete, but there will be some for those most deserving. Applications may be secured from the leaders.

Since one of the laws of girl scouting is concerned with thrift, saving for camp by buying camp stamps is encouraged. These are redeemable at face value whether or not the scout attends camp. Camp stamps make good birthday gifts, or gifts for any occasion, for a Girl Scout daughter, grand-daughter, or friend. Nearly all girls should be able to save a portion of their camp fees from one summer to the next.

It was decided to sponsor "open house" at Camp Birdseye on Sunday afternoon, May 3, at which time Scouts may show their parents and friends around the grounds. It is felt that not enough people are familiar with the beautiful site and it is hoped many Warren and Forest counties will take advantage of this opportunity to see where their scouts attend camp and what those who do not attend miss each summer.

It was also stated there are pictures of the camp site in the office for use at neighborhood meetings. This camp is maintained by the girls for their use through nut and cookie sales.

EYEING OUTER SPACE — When the Pentagon recently revealed that the United States had exploded three nuclear devices in space last year (Project Argus), scientists announced that radiation from the bombs spread around the edge of the atmosphere in an hour. How could they tell what went on 300 miles above the earth? Diagrams above give the answer. One means was by instrument-carrying rockets which were fired into the band of radiation to measure the changes in earth's natural radiation envelope. Explorer IV also played a part by sampling nuclear activity. The results? Besides more new knowledge about space immediately above the atmosphere, evidence that high-altitude nuclear explosions are not the answer to stopping enemy missiles, but may create an "electron mirror" to aid radar.

Survey of Air Pollution Being Made in State

HARRISBURG — A state-wide survey of air pollution in Pennsylvania will be made by Dr. David M. Anderson, U. S. Public Health Service engineer from the Robert A. Taft Sanitary Engineering Center in Cincinnati, Dr. Charles L. Wilbar, state health secretary, announced today.

Dr. Wilbar said the public health engineer will compile technical information needed by the state health department for future "constructive" planning in the field of air pollution control.

The survey will take six months to a year to complete. Every community with a population of 2500 or more and other selected areas will be surveyed. State health department industrial hygiene engineers will interview health officers, planning and zoning boards, industry and business bureaus.

Anderson said the information gained from questionnaires and interviews will be used to "appraise the nature and magnitude of the current problems as well as the future potential for serious air pollution in various parts of the state."

Examples of the data to be collected include frequency and types of complaints of air pollution, quantities of various fuels consumed for heating, power and transportation, past and anticipated trends in population growth and concentration, refuse disposal practices, types and numbers of industrial sources of air pollution, climate, meteorology, and topography.

"Each area is unique in its air pollution problems," Anderson said. "Local terrain and weather determine whether pollutants will build up in an area or be swept away."

The afternoon session was devoted to plans for Spring Homemakers Day. Tentative date is Thursday, May 7. A tour of new and remodeled homes will be a highlight of Spring Homemakers Day.

Community leaders who attended were Mrs. Merle Dashner, Mrs. Leon Rudolph, East Hickory; Mrs. John Motzer, German 111; Mrs. Robert Carg, Mrs. Ira Shoup, Marienville; Mrs. Matilda Barnett, Mrs. Myona Carson, Neiltown; Mrs. J. # Change Hair, Make-Up Regularly Basis for subtle make-up that projects a look of natural beauty is (left) a clean and healthy skin. This girl keeps her skin clear and radiant with soap and water. She has learned (center) to apply lipstick with a brush for a long-lasting look which is devoid of artificiality. She switches make-up shades in keeping with the colors she wears and with the seasons. She is aware that the light of spring calls for make-up base, powder, lipstick and rouge with a rosy base and eye-shadow that hints at mauve. Here is the finished make-up (right). Her hair is less bouffant than last season and though it's cut in petals, it's shaped to the head. She sets it each night on large roll curlers to get the desired effect.

There's many a laugh in the old family album. When we see ourselves in styles of past years, we realize how clothes can date a gal. Yet many of us don't follow the thought through to the end. Fashions in hair styles and make-up have changed, too. Still, some of us apply cosmetics the way we did when mom first gave us permission to use them. Others are reluctant to change a habit that was becoming 10 years ago. Yet such mistakes can truly date you. Today's look is deceptively natural. Exaggerated make-up and fussy hair styles have no place in it. The basis of this natural look is a clean, stimulated skin and healthy, shining hair. So don't spare the soap and water. Foundation creams today are of a much lighter texture than they used to be, and should be chosen in the shade closest to your skin tone. If you use rouge, be careful with it. More than any other cosmetic, it can make a caricature of your face when misapplied. Its purpose is not to give you pink cheeks, but to accent your eyes. It should be sparingly placed high on the cheeks, and blended from the center of the eyes outward. Lipstick should be applied with a brush for best results. You can enlarge your mouth by bringing the color only slightly below your lip line. It can be made to appear smaller by applying your lipstick just within the natural boundaries of your lips. There's no need to distort the natural line. If you use one lipstick rather than several, a clear, true red will look well with any color in your wardrobe. Eyes take flattery from shadow and mascara. Today's eye make-up comes in delightful shades of blue, green, violet—and when applied subtly, it brings dramatic beauty to the eyes. Go lightly, though. Lashes stiff with mascara and brows drawn in a thin line are products of the past, and they'll add years to your face. Last, but not least, never go to bed without washing off the "trimmings." Your skin must be able to breathe and refresh itself while you sleep. Give your face and neck a good soap-and-water massage at night, and use your favorite cream while you sleep. Have your hair professionally cut in a soft, simple style so that you can care for it yourself between settings. Brush it regularly and shampoo it as often as it needs to be done. If you think you look older than you should, in spite of your up-to-the-minute wardrobe, perhaps the fault lies in the way you apply your cosmetics and wear your hair. And if that's the case, a new young look is yours for the taking.

Pennsylvania Outdoors...

Prepared by Pennsylvania Game Commission

Traps Its Killer
Recently a resident of Cochran, Crawford County, entered his side of a double garage to find blood dripping through the floor overhead and onto his auto. Fearing murder had been committed, he summoned a town policeman who discovered the "corpse" was a freshly killed doe deer.

Before Game Protector arrived, the corpse's head had disappeared. Investigation followed, guilty ran and carcass were found. In addition to paying his fine, the man will be denied the right to hunt or trap in Pennsylvania for three years.

Planting Plans
In preparation for spring operation Game Commission has ordered the following: 1600 bushels of seed to be planted on approximately 5200 acres, 661 tons of fertilizer for 3200 acres; and 3045 tons of pulverized limestone for 1600 acres. Properties on which seed, lime

Outdoorsmen Help
Chestnut Grove sportsmen (Clearfield County) were active past winter conducting a feeding program. They bought and distributed 100 bushels of corn, 15 bales of Birdfoot trefoil and pruned and released 100 apple trees.

Much of the feed was hauled in over deep snow by toboggan. Several other sportsmen's clubs and individuals assisted.

Dog Season Closes
Owners and trainers of hunting dogs are reminded of the game law, which in part reads it is unlawful to train a dog between first day of April and 21st day of July.

Now They Show
"It appears a very smart strain of bunnies is developing in Pennsylvania," remarked Clifford Ruth, a Commission land manager in southwest. "I was surprised, this winter, to note that rabbits are showing up in far number in areas where they couldn't be found last hunting season. I do not mean to imply they are plentiful, but in most localities a brood stock is present."

Good Wildlife Holdover
Game Protector William Shaver from south-eastern Pennsylvania said: "Here in Montgomery County we have a good supply of game left as brood stock. Ringneck pheasants are quite abundant. A large number of cock birds remain. Deer are still plentiful enough to ensure good fawning results. Rabbits that remain make me believe they will produce enough stock for good reproduction this year."

Known Deer Kill
During February, 560 deer were reported killed in Pennsylvania, for crop damage, by vehicles, illegally, by dogs and result of miscellaneous accidents.

Birds May By-Pass
Most of the wild waterfowl that normally stop at Pymatuning during northward migration will probably not drop in this spring because there will be ice on the lake at the time. The ice, formed on the lake during one of their coldest winters, is 24 inches thick. It probably will be April before the covering is gone to have open water.

Color of Bruin's Coat
American bear customarily wears a shaggy, black coat. But the color varies on occasion, as does fur of other animals, feathers of birds, even skin of reptiles. A black woodchuck, white crow or spotted deer simply indicates an abnormal variation in the creature's pigmentation. Occasionally pelage of a black bear is not black at all, but is of cinnamon or brown color. Such an animal still is a "black bear," however, appearances to the contrary notwithstanding.

Corraling Fat Takes Time and Exercise

BY ALICIA HART, NEA Beauty Editor

The pear-shaped teen-age figure is not one which makes a girl exactly happy. She looks funny in slacks, lumpy in a bathing suit and huge in a pleated skirt. Since it isn't the kind of figure that will improve with age, obviously something has to be done about it.

The most sensible thing is to reduce the hips and derriere. This cannot be done by dieting alone. An overall weight loss will help, of course, but many slim girls have large hips. The answer to the problem lies in spot exercise. In this case, it's just plain knocking off that accumulated fat.

To do this, sit down on the floor with legs straight out in front of you. Cross your arms over your chest and shift your whole weight from one side of your body to the other. This will actually "walk" you across the floor in a sitting position and will also knock off that fatty accumulation in the process.

Don't expect it to come off in a week; six months is more like it.

Offhand, it would seem that girls with slightly curly hair have no problems in that department at all. Actually, curly or partially curly hair can present as many problems as straight hair.

For one thing, not many stylists understand the cutting of such hair. They tend to want to razor-cut or taper curly hair. This spoils the curl and makes the hair impossible to handle. Curly and coarse hair should be blunt cut. You should ask your hairdresser each time to be sure to use this technique in cutting. Further, curly hair should be cut with the wave. Cutting it or curling it against the wave simply pulls out the curl and creates a head full of sticklike ends.

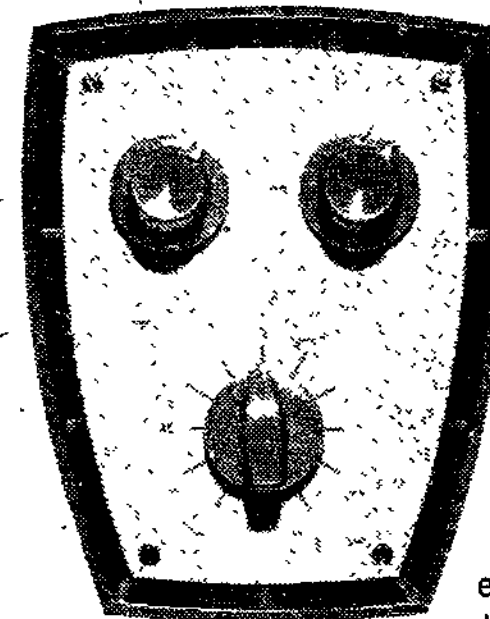

If your hair is only partially curly, it may need flat beer in the setting process to give it the needed body.

Fortunately, nature has equipped most of us to get comfortably through life without the help of sleeping pills, pep pills or other crutches. That is, she has equipped us if we will use the means she has given us.

If you know that coffee keeps you awake at night, don't give into that temptation to have just one cup. If you find it hard to unwind at the end of a busy day, find something to do that relaxes you.

Don't just glue yourself to an old movie on TV. Engage your mind with something pleasant and relaxing comes readily.

Baseball Players Acquire a New Representative

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—J. Norman Lewis became the legal representative for the major league baseball players six years ago despite the belligerent opposition of the club owners. Today, the New York attorney has lost the job because of his own belligerence toward the owners.

Lewis was given the ax here Tuesday at a meeting of the 16 player representatives. They announced they have more need for a public relations representative—an agency man to handle endorsements and similar matters—than an attorney.

The representatives, after a day long meeting, took back to their respective clubs a proposal to set up a central office in New York with Frank Scott to act as their representative. Scott already has served as an agent for numerous players.

Lewis himself made the announcement that his contract, which calls for $20,000 a year and expires March 31, had not been renewed.

He told newsmen "The players believe that by reason of the achievements they already have accomplished, they no longer need a permanent attorney under contract."

"But we felt," said one representative, who declined use of his name "that he had become too belligerent toward the owners."

Hammer's Future With Phillies Is Still Uncertain

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Will Granny Hammer be a bench warmer or a game starting infielder when the baseball season opens?

Early Sunday afternoon Philadelphia Phillies Manager Eddie Sawyer was inclined to think he would be a bench warmer, "unless he shows me that he's a lot healthier than I think he is."

A few hours later, after Pittsburgh had defeated the Phillies 9-1 at Clearwater, Sawyer had changed his mind—almost.

The 31-year-old Hammer, who batted .301 last year, drove in the Phillies only run, stolen a base and handled his fielding chores at shortstop flawlessly.

"I'm not so sure Hammer isn't a lot healthier than I think he is," Sawyer commented. He was referring to Hammer's bad right knee, which seriously hampered his running and fielding last year. The knee was operated on last May.

"My leg's feeling better all the time," Hammer said. "But until I have to make a tough fielding play I can't be sure how the knee will stand up."

Former Local Star Wins College Letter

PAT MADDEN
Receives Letter

Word came from Department of Public Instruction at Slippery Rock State Teachers College today that Pat Madden, freshman at the STC, won his varsity letter in swimming.

The department said that Madden was Rocket's number one breaststroke and butterfly swimmer. Madden helped accumulate many of the points that led the team to a fine dual meet season of nine wins, two losses, co-championship of Penn-Ohio Conference; second in STC meet; and sixth in a field of 16 schools in NAAIA championship.

At present, Madden holds Slippery Rock School records in both 200-yard butterfly and 200-yard breaststroke events. Pat is a member of the medley relay team which holds the school and pool record.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Madden, 315 East Fifth.

Tigers Believe Harvey Kuenn Is Big Time Player

By DAVE DILES
Associated Press Sports Writer
LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—In the space of one season, Harvey Kuenn mastered a new position. Now the Detroit Tigers believe he is ready for something bigger—the American League Batting championship.

Only 28, the ex-bonus player from the University of Wisconsin has been a big league player for six seasons.

Kuenn, always among the leaders in hits and doubles, has a lifetime batting mark of .308. In 1956 he hit at a .332 clip.

His average nosedived 50 points and his RBI total fell off 50 per cent in 1957, the year the husky blond was panned for his fielding at shortstop. It is a position he had played all his life and he made the American League all star team there five times.

Stanley R. (Bucky) Harris had suggested two seasons before, when he was Tiger manager, that Kuenn would be better off as an outfielder.

Trouble was the Tigers had no one to take over at short. The 1958 season was the one of great experiment for the Detroit club. Billy Martin took over at shortstop, a position he had seldom played. Kuenn moved to center.

The Martin move was abandoned late in the season, but Kuenn remained in center. His fielding was shaky at first, but before the campaign was half over, the comment around the circuit was all in his favor.

Now says General Manager Rick Ferrell, Kuenn can play the position with any of them.

Coaches of Ten-Man Squads Pit Ball Control Wits

COLLEGE PARK, MD. (AP)—A pair of coaches who advocate ball control offense match wits tonight in an East-West college basketball game.

But don't look for a low-scoring contest.

The 10-man squads coached by Hank Iba of Oklahoma State and Bud Millikan of Maryland include some of the nation's top point-makers, including All Americas Bailey Howell of Mississippi State (27.5) and Bob Boozer of Kansas State (25.7).

In addition, the coaches would have you know, ball control shouldn't be confused with delay tactics.

"Ball control is when you set up each man on your team for his most effective shot," Iba said. "It may be after the second pass in your series or it may be on the fourteenth. But it's for setting up your Sunday shot—your best one."

Thomas' Career Is Nearly Ended From Injured Foot

BOSTON (AP)—Boston University freshman John Thomas, the world high jump record holder, will be sidelined eight to 12 weeks with a foot injury suffered in an elevator mishap.

The track career of the 18-year-old sensation was nearly ended Tuesday when his left foot got caught between an elevator and the shaft in a BU building where he is employed part time.

Thomas, who became the first athlete to jump seven feet indoors before registering his world mark of 7 feet, 1 1/4 inches, suffered three cuts and bruises, but escaped broken bones.

Dr. Chester W. Howe operated on Thomas at Massachusetts Memorial Hospital and said the young Negro star will be confined for several days.

Sad Sam Jones On Way to Giants From Cardinals

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sad Sam Jones, St. Louis Cardinal right-hander, is being traded to the San Francisco Giants for two left-handed sluggers, the San Francisco Chronicle said today.

The 33-year-old Jones, whose 2.88 earned run average was second only the Giants' Stu Miller's 2.47 in the National League last year, might be the answer to the San Francisco club's admitted pitching needs.

The newspaper said that outfielder Willie Kirkland, powerful but inconsistent hitter for the Giants, seemed to be headed East in the deal.

The other slugger, it said, would be either first baseman Bill White or outfielder Leon Wagner.

Jones set a league record when he struck out 225 for the Cards in 1958, erasing the club's all-time record of 199 strikeouts by Dizzy Dean in 1933.

Slammin' Sammy Two Strokes Below Par

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Only four strokes separated Sam Snead from the worst-off of 20 leaders playing their final 18-hole round today for $1,000 top money in the Seminole Medal Golf Tournament.

Snead, of Boca Raton, was operating from a first-day 34-36-70, two strokes below par on the windy, 6,850-yard Seashore course.

Training Camp News

By JIM KENSIL
Associated Press Sports Writer
Don Drysdale's "tired elbow" is wide awake.

It never took a rest Tuesday as the 22-year-old Los Angeles right-hander pitched nine shutout innings and the Dodgers upped their exhibition record to 10-3, best in the majors.

The Philadelphia Phils were the victims of Drysdale's 1-0 performance, a five-hitter at Sarasota. The Phils got only two runners past first base after the fourth inning, and although the Dodgers got only three hits, a double by Wally Moon and a triple by Jim Gentile in the fourth inning were enough. It was the first complete spring game by a Dodger pitcher in three years.

When Drysdale flopped at the start of the 1958 season some said it was nervousness before "home-town" fans. Don was born in Van Nuys, Calif.

Recently he brushed aside any detailed explanations of his slow '58 start with this statement: "My arm just wasn't in shape. I used to get tired in the elbow. That's where I feel it when my arm isn't strong. This spring I feel I passed that tired elbow stage early."

Up until Tuesday only Bob Anderson of the Chicago Cubs had gone nine innings, but Milwaukee's Warren Spahn and Pittsburgh's Vern Law made the step along with Drysdale. No American Leaguer has gone the route.

Spahn was as sharp as Drysdale, allowing only five hits in a 3-0 victory over St. Louis at St. Petersburg. The 33-year-old left-hander is the highest paid ($60,000) pitcher in baseball because he can come up with the big one.

Law stopped the much-improved Detroit Tigers 3-1 at Lakeland, as Rocky Nelson, the perennial mi-

Sizing Up the Teams

WHITE SOX

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Al Lopez, who has finished second to the Yankees in seven out of the eight years he has been a big league manager, thinks this may be the year his Chicago White Sox will finally beat New York to the wire.

He thought so last year, and the year before, and the year before that. He was right only in 1954 when his Cleveland Indians had to play at a record-breaking pace to top the Yankees' 103 victory total.

"I think we'll give the Yankees a better run this time," the personable Lopez said. "They got off to a flying start and we did just the opposite last year. In May, they were a mile out in front and we were in last place. With it all, we gave them quite a scare."

Lopez firmly believes his club is better than it was last year and he is willing to make a sporting wager the White Sox won't get off to the same miserable start.

"I think we have more power and I'm sure we have better pitching," he said. "Jim Wilson has retired but Barry Lantieri will more than make up for him. He pitched well for us in the tail-end of the season last fall and he's big, strong and cocky."

Lantieri joins veterans Billy Pierce (17-11), Dick Donovan (15-14) and Early Wynn (14-16) as the club's big four. Ray Moore, Bob Shaw, Gerry Staley, Don Rudolph and Tom Quatlers round out the staff.

"For the first time in years the White Sox have three outfielders who conceivably can play every day," Lopez said. "Jim Landis, in center, is now an established star. He was hitting .380 last July but hit around .350 after that."

"Al Smith, our right-fielder, was bothered by a bad leg all last year. He now is sound and has looked good. Johnny Callison is our left fielder. He has had less than two years experience and he's only 19 but we think he will hit."

With Sherm Lollar heading a three-man catching staff that will include Earl Battey and either John Ramono or Les Moss, Lopez has no problems there.

Orioles Look Good Casey Stengel Says

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Casey Stengel, manager of the New York Yankees, thinks the Baltimore Orioles "might cause a lot of trouble" around the American League this year.

The Yankee skipper was commenting Monday about the team which had just licked his squad two out of three exhibition games. He was particularly impressed with the Orioles' depth and added: "Last year you'd have to say his (Orioles Manager Paul Richards) replacements wasn't too good. Now these men he's got might not be the best in the league, but they are better than he had and they should hit better. And from what I saw the last two days, his pitching could be splendid."

New York won 5; Monday after dropping a doubleheader to Baltimore Sunday.

Murtaugh Mum About First Game Pitcher

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP)—Manager Danny Murtaugh of the Pittsburgh Pirates is giving no indication as to who his starting pitcher will be for the opening game against Cincinnati April 9.

He has reason, too. The perennial starter, Bob Friend, has pitched less than nine innings since the start of the exhibition season. Other pitchers are in the same boat.

On the other hand, Vernon Law has been the workhorse of the team. The right-hander became the first Pirate hurler to go nine innings, in Monday's 3-1 victory over Detroit. He also held Cincinnati to one run in seven innings.

Asked if this might indicate that Law will start the opener, Murtaugh declined to look that far ahead.

BUCS AIRING ALL GAMES; TV ANNOUNCED

Pirates, who will air all of their games—home and away—in 1959, over KDKA Radio, have announced their 1959 television schedule of road games. The schedule of 27 road contests on TV will follow the same pattern as last year — Saturday games and first games of Sunday doubleheaders from all NL cities except Los Angeles and San Francisco, with selected night games. As usual, no home games will be televised. KDKA-TV will originate Pirates' TV road contests with WJAC-TV in Johnstown. Bob Prince and Jim Woods will describe televised games.

Stories Behind Opening Games in Stanley Cup Play

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Maurice (Rocket) Richard's gloves and the grit and determination of 32-year-old goalie Harry Lumley were the stories behind victories by Montreal and the Bruins in Tuesday night's opening playoffs.

Marcel Bonin sparked the Canadiens to a 4-2 victory over Chicago and Lumley held Toronto at bay in Boston's 5-1 victory. Both were opening games in the best-of-seven semifinal series.

Bonin's two goals broke open a 2-1 contest in which Montreal never trailed after Claude Provost's opening period goal. Goaltie Jacques Plante got magnificent support from his defense, getting only 13 saves. Chicago goalie Glenn Hall rang up 42, as teammate Tod Sloan scored both the Hawks' goals.

Lumley had 32 saves in thwarting Toronto's hopes of continuing their victory sweep. The Leafs won a playoff berth with five straight victories in their final games to beat out New York by one point.

National Basketball Association Playoffs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
If the home court advantage holds up—and it's bating a perfect 6-for-6 so far—the Syracuse Nationals will square their Eastern division series with the Boston Celtics in the National Basketball Assn. playoffs tonight.

The Nats trail 2-1 in the best-of-seven scuffling to determine an Eastern NBA champion. But they're the home team tonight and — east and west — narry a visitor has won a game yet.

The St. Louis Hawks followed the pattern in taking a 2-1 lead over Minneapolis in the Western division finals Tuesday night with a 127-97 romp as Bob Pettit rammed in 39 points. The three games in the West have followed the "home team" trend without a hitch.

If they keep it up, both will go seven games and Boston will nail the Eastern title at home April 1 and St. Louis will wrap up Minneapolis 4 games to 3 on March 31 at St. Louis.

Fights in Golden Gloves Tourney To Be Televised

CHICAGO (AP)—An Australian and a 17-year-old Louisville high school student may be the show stealers tonight in the Golden Gloves 32nd intercity bouts.

The climax of amateur boxing's big jamboree will pit New York's Eastern champions against Chicago's Westerners in a 16-bout program in Chicago Stadium.

Among four bouts to be nationally televised (by ABC) starting at 10 p.m. EST is the lightweight scrap between Tony Madigan of Sydney, a great crowd-pleaser in New York's Eastern finals, and Cassius Clay, Chicago champion from Louisville.

Madigan, 29, is Australian and British Empire amateur titleholder. He has lost only 5 of 99 bouts and twice participated in the Olympics. Clay will try to overcome the spread of experience with a knockout — packed right hand.

Other scheduled three-rounders to be televised include: 112 pounds — Angel Morales, New York, vs. Gil Yanez, Toledo; 147 pounds — Ken Suhovsky, New York, vs. Don Sargent, Minneapolis; 126 pounds — Lloyd Weeks, Brooklyn, vs. Don Eddington, St. Louis.

Keglers Take Breather During Holy Week

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Leaders in the American Bowling Congress Tournament probably will sleep a little easier the rest of this week.

During the remainder of Holy Week, the ABC schedule has been reduced sharply and unlike the first 39 days of the event, there will not be five to seven hundred bowlers trying to surpass the leaders' scores every day.

Most of the action this week will be limited to booster division teams, which average less than 800 in league play. A few open division clubs are scattered through the schedule, but few have the potential to challenge the leaders.

Tuesday's play failed to produce a threat to the top 10 in any division.

Gomez Surprised When Traded to Philadelphia

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — Ruben Gomez, the Puerto Rican right-hander who puts up a fuss about pitching in cool weather and occasionally pops a batter with a pitch, admits he's a little temperamental.

"Everybody has things they like to do or don't like," said Ruben, who does a pretty good job with English. "I don't like to pitch in cold weather."

"No pitcher does, unless he has a fast ball, and I don't throw so hard. When it is cold you don't break a sweat. I like to have moisture on my hands so I can control the ball better."

Gomez, a thin guy who stands 6-0 and is listed at 170, admits the December trade that sent him from the San Francisco Giants to the Philadelphia Phillies came as a surprise. Two surprises, in fact.

"First I was surprised that they traded me," he said, "and then I am surprised that they traded me to Philadelphia. I think they traded me to Cincinnati."

"I like this team. I get a chance to learn from that fellow," Ruben added, pointing to Robin Roberts. "I watch to see how he moves the ball around. And if there is some hitter he gets out all the time I watch and maybe I will too."

Ruben, 31, had a 10-12 record last season, his sixth in the majors. He thinks he can win 15 with the Phillies, "if they pitch me regularly so I can get into the groove."

No Fishing in Trout Streams Until April 15

HARRISBURG — Pennsylvania fishermen were reminded today of the legal prohibition against trout fishing in all state stocked trout waters, and the closed season on bass, both of which became effective midnight, Saturday, March 14.

The statement was made by William Voigt, Jr., executive director of the Pennsylvania Fish Commission.

While the no fishing status in trout waters terminates with the opening of the 1959 trout season at 5:00 a. m., April 15, bass will remain on the protected list in Commonwealth waters until June 15. The latter includes all inland waters, the Delaware river, and Lake Erie's Presque Isle Bay and peninsular waters. By reciprocal agreement with Maryland, however, bass will become fair game in the Conowingo Reservoir on the lower Susquehanna river on June 1. And by agreement with Ohio, there is no closed season on the species in Pymatuning Reservoir.

The director emphasized, however, that while all fishing is prohibited in trout waters from March 14 to April 15, the closed season on bass requires only that they be returned to the water if caught while fishing for other species.

Turf Scholars Take Cram Course at Old Institution

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK (NEA)—Among the reasons for New York's status as the information center of the nation is a dowdy building on truck-clogged West 25th Street. It is wedged among button factories, furriers and luncheonettes. It is the New York Public Library's Newspaper Division.

Students working on a master's degree thesis find the orderly bound volumes and microfilm back issues of New York newspapers a gift. Lawyers use them extensively in negligence cases. The number of well-known writers found there, carefully plagiarizing, is downright embarrassing.

But these days, with thoroughbred racing now upon us, the walnut reading tables fill rapidly in the morning and somebody who wants to look up some old Heywood Brown columns has to wait.

THE HORSE PLAYERS HAVE taken over. An elderly little lady sat between two work-shirt-wearing men who were busy looking up performances of horses who ran in Florida and California the past winter and have been shipped to New York for the opening.

She could have been rereading her late husband's obituary notice. At least that was the thought until, wetting a finger, she flipped a page and pounced on a back chart from Tropical Park. "I don't play all winter," she was saying. "I have to catch up with the form. I don't like to bet bookmakers. I only think racing is fun when you can hurt the mutual windows."

"I don't need to read a thing," the librarian smiled. "I can tell when the races are about to begin. The same ones come in every year a couple of weeks before the races open."

"They are diligent. If the students we have here put in half the effort these people do there would be many more cum laude graduates."

BUT THE ONLY interest the library's clients have in good marks are those placed on their applications at the finance company.

It does illustrate one remarkable thing about horse players. These people read and absorb. They may not be able to keep a checking account in good order, but rare is the good horse player who cannot recite that, for example, Saber Duel went four furlongs around the dogs in :54 breezing at Jamaica on March 16.

Nor are the players afraid to spend for instructional aids. The daily racing trade paper, The Morning Telegraph, costs 50 cents. The tabloid Daily Sports Bulletin is 15 cents.

At the track, a total of eight selectors' cards are sold. A couple of them cost $1. The rest go for 50 cents. They sell enough of them to feed families of clockers and handicappers.

THE NEWSPAPER LIBRARY is not only the cheapest but the most direct route for a serious player.

As one busy regular noted, "These guys who go out there cold are crazy. They start making 'name horses' favorites. Handicappers do it, too. But a lot of them ain't had any decent racing in them for over a month."

"What I do here is find a horse that's gonna ship into New York with a couple of good races behind him. Then when the public lets him go off at 10-1, I make mine."

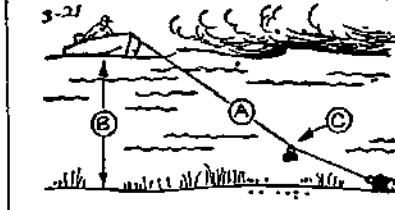

"What do you do for a living?"

"I been pushing a cab in the days all winter. At night I work a couple of hours in a luncheonette. I was behind pretty bad after last year. I made some terrible mistakes down there. I'm studying so I don't make them this time. This is the year I'm going to win out."

"Don't listen to what anybody tells you. If you work hard, you could beat the horses."

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Senate Budget Subcommittee appeared today to have set 25 million dollars as a rough goal in its efforts to slice the administration's record budget for the 1959-61 fiscal biennium.

"If we can take $25,000 here and $25,000 there, maybe we can save about 25 million dollars," Fleming declared. His comment came during questioning of Mines Secretary Joseph Kennedy.
In two days of hearings this week, the subcommittee took no major exceptions to departmental requests. The hearings continue next week.
Kennedy was the final witness at Tuesday's day-long session.
The subcommittee questioned him about a $500,000 request for coal research in the biennium.

ed what he thought about the prospects for a summit meeting this year regardless of the outcome of the foreign ministers' negotiations.
He replied "As regards the likelihood of a summit meeting, I would say that everybody seems to think that there will be one."
The emphasis in the two presentations was different. Eisenhower emphasized his requirement for prior progress before a summit conference. Macmillan treated a summit conference as almost if not entirely inevitable.
Under questioning Eisenhower said it is clear that Khrushchev is the only man who has the authority really to negotiate.
Therefore, Eisenhower said, he thinks there is some validity to the argument that there should be talks with the Kremlin top man. He's got to be in the picture pretty well, Eisenhower said.
The United States, Britain, France and West Germany have agreed on the wording of different but similar notes to Moscow concerning both a May meeting of East-West foreign ministers at Geneva and an offer to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev of a later session of government chiefs. The notes will be delivered as soon as they are cleared with the NATO allies.
Further, it was learned that the British, French, U.S. and West German foreign ministers plan a meeting of their own in Paris next month to complete the strategy they will follow and the proposals they will present in the May conference with the Soviets at Geneva.
German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and French President Charles de Gaulle have approved the substance of a compromise formula on the summit conference question which Eisenhower and Macmillan agreed on in week-end conferences.

Any Russian of lesser status, he said, would have to be on the telephone to Moscow all the time, checking with Khrushchev.
The President went on then to say if we are going to get anything of substance from the Russians—if we are going to get a valid agreement—then Khrushchev has got to be in the picture.
Eisenhower's news conference was dominated by discussion of the prospects for a summit conference and a settlement of the Berlin crisis.
But the President did touch on these other matters:
DULLES — He will never let ailing Secretary of State Dulles leave government service so long as Dulles feels able to work in some capacity.
Without saying so specifically, the President thus indicated that he has given thought to keeping Dulles on, possibly as a foreign policy adviser, even if Dulles' illness should make it necessary for him to resign as secretary of state.
Dulles advised him this morning. The President reported, that he is planning to leave for Florida Monday for a period of recreation and convalescence.
Dulles' doctors, Eisenhower said, are hopeful he will be able to get back into harness in a reasonable time, but so far have given no specific information on whether radiation treatments Dulles has been receiving have checked his cancer.
PROJECT ARGUS—The government will make public later in the day a report on Project Argus—the explosion last September of three atomic devices about 300 miles in outer space.
Eisenhower made that announcement when a reporter asked whether the Argus tests would alter the U.S. position in attempts to negotiate a ban on nuclear testing with Russia and Britain.
Eisenhower said the Argus tests were a new development and that it has taken months to evaluate the results. That evaluation amounted to separating the scientific aspects from the military, the President said. As for the prospect of a ban on nuclear weapons testing in the atmosphere alone, it still is too early to tell about that, Eisenhower said. The basic question, he added, is the Soviet insistence so far on the right to impose a veto on any agreement negotiated. That has been one of the big stumbling blocks at the negotiations which started last October.
PRICES — Eisenhower once more called on both labor and management in the steel industry to display statesmanship and try to avoid any price increase for steel.
CONGRESS—Asked to assess the record of the Democratic-controlled 86th Congress as it is about to take an Easter recess, Eisenhower replied with a smile that the lawmakers are unpredictable. He has found, he said, that Congress' actions usually come in spurts toward the end of the session.
NEPOTISM—A reporter asked what Eisenhower thought of Congress members who put relatives on their payrolls. Again with a smile, the President replied he would leave that one for the reporters' editors.
TREATY—Any separate Soviet peace treaty with East Germany in advance of a summit conference would not in itself end Western rights in Berlin, Eisenhower said, adding that the Allies are determined to protect those rights.
NIXON—There was consideration given to having Vice President Richard M. Nixon sit in at the Eisenhower-Macmillan talks last week. While that idea was abandoned, the President said he has held a long meeting with Nixon since the talks and the Vice President is fully acquainted with what went on there.
JOHNSON—A reporter, suggesting that Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) might win the Democratic presidential nomination, asked whether Eisenhower feels that whether Eisenhower feels that Johnson is well qualified. Eisenhower ducked that one. He simply referred to the Texas Senator as a warm personal friend of many years—a man, who like himself, belongs to the cardiac club. This referred to the two men's heart attacks.
SPENDING—A bit sharply Eisenhower said that during the political campaign last fall he never labeled all Democratic members of Congress as reckless spenders. He said he tagged only some of them that way and that it was a perfectly legitimate thing to do in a political fight.
BYRD—Told that Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) is urging him to veto legislation which the Senator feels would throw the administration's 77-billion-dollar budget out of balance, Eisenhower said he has no agreement with Byrd regarding possible vetoes. But he added he does agree with Byrd on the necessity for safeguarding the nation's financial status.
TIBET—Reports reaching him regarding the revolt in Tibet against Chinese Communist control are so fragmentary, Eisenhower said, that it is impossible for him to evaluate the situation. He did say that picture there reflects restiveness over the Communist control.
TRADE—He and Macmillan discussed Anglo-American trade—such matters as wool fabrics, ma-

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Fire swept a three-story building on Washington Road in the suburban Mt. Lebanon business district early today.

Mother Questioned in the Deaths of Two Youngsters
HIBERNIA, N.J. (AP)—Bodies of two babies were found in a clothes basket in a rural home Tuesday night. One had been bludgeoned, the other suffocated. The children, Katherine Church, 2, and her brother, Kenneth, 6 months, were found swathed in a blanket.
Police Chief Ernest Powers said the mother, Ellen Church, 38, a former schoolteacher, will be given a psychiatric examination. No charges have been filed.
Brooks Church, 40, a microbiologist, came home from work to find his wife and two other children, Elizabeth, 14, and Stephen, 9, under the influence of drugs. The children later told police their mother gave them sleeping tablets and told them they were calcium pills.
Powers said Mrs. Church told Robert Burdge, a friend of the family, that she had killed the babies.
Her husband quoted her as saying: "They are gone away and are never coming back."
Church told police: "I can't believe it. She was a wonderful wife and mother."
The Churches moved here several years ago from Youngstown, Ohio. Church, 40, works for the Warner-Lambert Pharmaceutical Co. at nearby Morris Plains.
The bodies of the babies were found in a playhouse 50 feet from the Church home.
Police said Katherine had been bludgeoned with a blunt instrument but they had not determined what it was. Kenneth died of suffocation, police said.
Hibernia is about 40 miles west of New York City.

Union Holy Week Noonday Service At First Baptist
"Obedient Unto Death" was the topic selected by Dr. Kenneth O. Eaton, Columbus, O., for his message at today's community Holy Week service in First Baptist church, third in the series of four planned Monday through Thursday by Warren County Ministerial Association.
Presiding at today's service was the Rev. A. C. Spencer, pastor of First Free Methodist church, with First Baptist organist, Mrs. Carl E. Whipple, at the console. Kiwanis Club members were present as a group, third service club to attend the union services.
Dr. Eaton took his text from Philippians 2:5-8, the message centering around the verse "Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus . . . who became obedient . . . unto death."
The speaker said: "Everything hinged on the perfect obedience of the Divine Son of God to the will and way of God the Father; we crave the Christian faith, we want and deeply need convictions. We are curious about Christ and cannot get Him out of our minds, and the answer to this quest lies in seeking the mind of Christ."
Continuing, Dr. Eaton stated "God's light is promised not to the spectator, but to the traveler." In his closing remarks, he emphasized the thought that "when we walk with the Lord . . . not talk—what a glory He sheds on our way! Obedience to Christ is the answer to the problems of life and this answer comes only from seeking the mind through launching out with Him in faith."
On Thursday, for the last of the four worship periods, Dr. Eaton will speak on the topic "Of Men and Angels," and the Rev. John Z. Andree, minister of First Church of the Nazarene, will conduct the service.

State Museum Building Reported to be Unsafe
HARRISBURG (AP)—Frank W. Melvin, chairman of the State Historical and Museum Commission, said Tuesday the 65-year-old State Museum Building here is unsafe for storage of any items of value.
Melvin said trustees of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania have refused to loan a painting of Chief Justice John Marshall for a scheduled exhibition in the Museum Building on the grounds the building is unsafe to house such a valuable art work.
The commission said that architects surveying the building recently for proposed remodeling work claimed the interior structure "was so bad that little more than the outside walls could be salvaged."
The Legislature has approved plans for construction of a William Penn Memorial Building and Archives Building in Harrisburg. The State Museum Building then would be converted into executive offices for the governor.

MILK STRIKE FAVORED
DORSET, Ohio (AP)—About 200 dairy producers in this eastern Ohio area have joined a growing number of farmers in western Pennsylvania who favor a proposed strike for higher milk prices, a union leader says.

California But One of Nine States to Execute Woman
By ARTHUR W. EVERETT
NEW YORK (AP) — Forty-one states and the District of Columbia sanction the death penalty for convicted criminals. But only nine states have executed a woman in recent years.
California is one of the nine, and its last experience with a woman in its gas chamber was so distasteful that a legislative effort now is underway to abolish capital punishment.
But, ironically, it was the state of California that Tuesday became the latest to doom a woman to death. She is Elizabeth Duncan, whose jealous love of her 30-year-old son drove her to promise two men $6,000 to kill her daughter-in-law.
It was the 1955 execution of Barbara Graham, 32, in the San Quentin prison gas chamber that sickened many Californians on capital punishment.
A prostitute turned robber, she died with two professional robbers for the murder of a 63-year-old Burbank, Calif. widow in a robbery attempt. The case formed the basis for a current movie, "I Want to Live," starring Susan Hayward.
After Miss Graham's death, Atty. Gen. Edmund G. Brown, now governor of California, was moved to declare: "This business today has been like some dark memory out of the Roman Coliseum."
"I hope Barbara Graham will be the last woman to be executed in the state of California," New York, probably, has executed more women than any other state—eight by state decree and a ninth by mandate of the federal government. The latter was a participant with her husband in one of the most infamous cases in American history—the Rosenberg atomic spy case.
Ethel Rosenberg went with her husband Julius to Sing Sing's electric chair June 19, 1953. She died with no display of emotion.
In recent years, Ohio has put three women to death in the electric chair, and South Carolina and Alabama have electrocuted two each. Illinois has electrocuted one. So has Virginia, but not since 1911.
Two women have gone to the gas chamber in North Carolina, and one in Missouri. In the latter state, years ago, a murderess was hanged.

19-Year-Old Student Takes 68-Year-old Bride
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—A 19-year-old student and his 68-year-old bride spent their first day at home Tuesday beating off demands of the bride's children that they end their marriage.
Paul Dunn and Lola Tipton Dunn said they were wed Monday in Covington, Tenn., by County Judge Stanley Shoaf and intend to stay that way.
"I told them I have already promised before God and witnesses to stand by him always, and I will," said Mrs. Dunn.
They met about a year ago when Dunn, studying accounting at a business school, rented a room from his future wife. "I was lost within the world and had no one to care," he said. "She looked to me to be the same."

Cancer Research on the Job!

"Some of the best scientific minds in the country... at least a thousand strong... are working in laboratories in almost every state to find out what causes cancer, and so put an end to the nation's number one disease killer," Dr. Richard A. Peters, President of the Warren County Unit, ACS said today. Their research, he explained, is financed by the ACS, whose annual Crusade will start here in Warren County April 1. Dr. Peters termed research "the golden key which will unlock the mystery of cancer and ultimately end it as a scourge." He described the research attack on cancer as the greatest and costliest single undertaking in medical history.

Intensification of the research war against cancer is one of the purposes of the Society's 1959 Crusade. Impetus has been given to the drive because of the record of disease already conquered through research. Dr. Peters said that the victory against polio, although the most spectacular case in point, was not won without the expenditure of great sums for research as well as for service. From 1938 through 1956 there was more than $468,000,000 in voluntary public support, plus millions of hours of labor contributed by volunteers. The Salk Vaccine was the result.

Earlier scourges, like cholera and smallpox, are today practically unknown in the United States. Typhoid is extremely rare. Infant mortality continues to decrease, and maternal deaths have been cut 69 per cent... all due to laboratory research.

Nothing apparently, is impossible to research scientists, Dr. Peters stated. Given time and tools... which includes generous support... the American Cancer Society is certain that cancer will be added to the list of controlled diseases in our time.
